The Reverend
Roy Tripp

Kay Keenan

Finally, church growth programs exist that produce measurable and achievable results for congregations. Led by the Reverend Roy Tripp and Kay Keenan, these biblically-based, spiritually sound, and even fun series of seminars are tailored to the needs of your church.

Our programs are highly interactive and yet filled with tangible actions that have worked in both large and small congregations across the country. If you and your congregation are talking about how to grow, Grow Your Church Now will work for you.

“Engaging, stimulating and thought provoking.”

*The Reverend T. Scott Allen,
St. Elizabeth’s Episcopal Church*

“The workshop got me enthused about what we could do, rather than frustrated about what we aren’t doing.”

*The Reverend Anne Kitch,
Cathedral Church of the Nativity*

“Good ideas, helps me recenter on what is necessary to welcome others.”

The Reverend Lauren Gough
